Funeral services for Sister Florence Petsch:

Rosary on Monday, July 6 at 6:00 at St. Stephens and Funeral Mass on Tuesday, July 7 at 10:00 at St. Stephens. Burial in Riverton

Sr. Florence was a member of the Sisters of St. Francis of Philadelphia for 44 years. She was a Shoshone Tribal member and grew up in Fort Washakie. She Monistered in several places in the Northwest but also ministered at St. Stephens from 1990-2015. Sr. Florence passed away on June 4 at Assisi House, the Sister's retirement residence

Do you know a marketing or communications expert? We'd love to hear from you!
The Diocesan Catholic Schools Council (DCSC) is seeking a volunteer with marketing or communications experience to help share the story of Catholic schools across the Diocese of Cheyenne. Council members serve a three-year term, meet virtually four times a year, and collaborate between meetings. Interested or know someone who would be a great fit? Email Donna Woodard, DCSC Chair Emeritus, at dcjwoodard@gmail.com.

As the start of the school year draws near, St. Margaret's School in Riverton urgently seeks a Music Teacher for one day per week. This paid position is a unique opportunity to inspire children and share the gift of music in a faith-filled environment.
St. Margaret's School also seeks a volunteer Choir Leader for weekly school Masses. The time commitment is small—no more than two hours per week—but the impact on our worship and community is huge.
We know God is calling the right people to these roles. If that might be you, or if someone comes to mind as you read this, please reach out or help us spread the word. Contact Principal Mosbrucker at mmosbrucker@stmargs.us.
